

2016 Global Report

International Department

October 17,
2016

U.S. Ambassador to Japan Caroline Kennedy Opinion exchange meeting was held

On Friday October 7th, U.S. Ambassador to Japan Caroline Kennedy visited our school and interacted with 17 students from the second-year international course. At first, groups of four students (world peace, global health, water improvement) made a presentation about their SGH research in English and they had a short question and answer time. Ambassador Caroline Kennedy was impressed with their creativity and possibilities. She gave them kind words of encouragement to continue researching and to play an active role in the world.

Peace	Participants: Yusuke Ooga, Kentaro Kaneko, Satoka Hirai, Imari Yasuno Content: “Make Nagasaki a multi-cultural society”, “Make Africa peaceful through education”, “Produce Nagasaki archives and assistant teaching materials for denuclearization”, “Vietnam fieldwork”, “Signatures by ten-thousand high school students”
Medicine	Participants: Manami Kozasa, Hibiki Nishikawa, Mao Fujimoto, Kyoka Mukai Content: “Soap which keeps mosquitoes away”, “Measures against fighting infectious diseases by washing hands with soap”
Water	Participants: Hina Shimazaki, Minami Takegawa, Takahiro Nagano, Ayaka Matsuo Content: “The effects of purifying water by using clams and oyster shells”

↑ Peace group

↑ Medicine group

↑ Water group

An exchange of opinions was held after the three presentations. They had a question and answer session about Okunchi festival and studying in the U.S. Ambassador Kennedy gave the students a message as follows; “Please come and study in the United States”. Miss Kozasa from the medical group told a news reporter “She was very gentle. I hope to make more international contributions by developing our studies”.

Participants in the Exchange of Opinions:

Yusuke Ooga, Sakota Hirai, Imari Yasuno, Mao Fujimoto, Kyoka Mukai, Minami Takegawa, Takahiro Nagano, Hinako Koga, Masamichi Araki, Taijyu Kawawaki, Rie Hamasaki, Fumika Sakurama

